Membership and Extension Month

August is Membership and Extension Month in Rotary. This is a time to “focus on the heart of Rotary and what makes it great-more than 1.2 million members in nearly 33,000 clubs worldwide.” Rotary and its purpose are realized through membership growth. This year RI President Kalyan Banerjee has put a challenge out to all clubs to increase membership. He would like this year to show a net membership increase of 10 percent and to add two new clubs to each district.

We need to actively consider the people we are in contact with in our daily lives. We can look in almost any profession for these new members. We all shop in various stores, eat at restaurants, see professionals for healthcare and other reasons. We may work in a setting where we see people everyday. Some of these people may be good possibilities to become future Rotarians. A friend or a family member may be interested in becoming a Rotarian. The Rotary International Website is a great resource for any help or ideas you may need. The Four Way Test can also assist any of us in the process of choosing people we want to ask to join our Club.

People who may be interested in Rotary are people who are interested in our community and in the world and want to help make it a better place. They may have a profession which gives them the skills to help others. They are people that are interested in engaging in these types of things and who will enjoy the fellowship they will share with fellow Rotarians.

Our Club does a great job of getting and retaining new members. We can always do better. These new members are the future of our Club and Rotary. Invite a prospective member to join you this month and talk about Rotary and what we do when you are doing whatever you do. This is a really good way to start.

Wurstfest Contest

We are in a contest for Wurstfest Auction Items. Kendra Wright is currently in the lead with a wedding package, Elvis impersonator for private party, bar stools, wall art, clock, die cutting machine-silhouette, Ducks Unlimited pieces, Harley Davidson items, Christmas Trees, and a wall medicine cabinet.

I brought this to your attention because her items are very diverse and to give you some ideas. Wherever you go whether it be a friend’s house or a business be on the look-out for auction items. The people who attend Wurstfest are all different. What one person may want to bid on is not the same as someone else.

My goal first and foremost is to have the most successful Wurstfest to date. My second goal is to beat Kendra. I mean that in the nicest way of course.

This week let’s all get out there and see what we can do!!!!

Until next week, GGG!!!

Attendance Reminder

According to the Rotary International Constitution termination of membership can take place for non-payment of dues. It can also take place for lack of attendance. Rules have become less strict than in the past but members must attend or make up at least 50% of meetings in each half of the year. As pointed out in the newsletter last week, makeup's need to be reported to Darlene Burke or John Milburn within a two week time frame.

In the near future those members who are not meeting attendance requirements will be contacted by club administration
