BC Chautauqua and Other Upcoming Dates and Events

The Dog Days of Summer are quickly coming to an end although the temperatures are expected to be close to 110 degrees this week and that may be a hard realization. I hope you all have had a wonderful summer and have had the opportunity to spend time with family and friends and created some great memories.

The first date we should keep in mind is August 29th because it is the beginning of school for the children of Southern Nevada. Please watch your speed in the school zones and keep the kids safe.

On September 1st is the Boulder City Community Blood Drive. If you signed up be sure to make it and if you haven't you should consider it. Donating blood saves lives everyday. Please see Lee McDonald for more information.

Phil Marcus Esser will hold a concert on September 9th at the College of Southern Nevada. The tickets are $20.00 per person and it is a fundraiser to benefit Boulder City Arts cape. Please see Darlene Burke for more information or go to the Chamber website.

There will be a free Twilight Barbershop concert by the Las Vegas Gamble-Aires on September 10th from 7:30-9:30 p.m. It will take place at the library amphitheater.

Friends of the Arts will sponsor another free concert at the library amphitheater on September 16th. The performer will be Boulder City's own, Justin Mather.

BC Chautauqua will take place on September 17th. BC Chautauqua was brought to Boulder City nineteen years ago. At one p.m. you will get to meet John Muir. He will be portrayed by O. Jayatu. Albert Einstein will light up the stage at 7:00 p.m. and is portrayed by Frank Mullen. The Program Moderator will be Michael Green for this year's show. He is a professor of history at the College of Southern Nevada. Musical Entertainment will be provided by pianist Charlie Shaffer. There will be a special dinner served at the Boulder Dam Hotel between shows. Call 293-3510 to make your reservation. Tickets for Chautauqua are available at the Boulder Dam Hotel, Ace Hardware in Boulder City and by phone with a credit card at the Boulder Theatre at 293-1161. Advance tickets purchases are suggested for this event. BC Chautauqua donated thousands of dollars to the Boulder City Museum and Historical Association. This year the committee plans to make another donation to BCMHA and possibly other Boulder City non-profits depending on the success of this year's program. The Board of Directors of Chautauqua is Amy Arnaz, Sara Denton, Linda Bronstein, Sara Weber and Beverly Mazza. Amy and Desi Arnaz host Chautauqua in their beautiful Boulder Theater and have for many years. Here are some thoughts on the Chautauqua experience. "Escape from routine, technology, preconceptions to simplicity, authenticity and discovery. Engage your mind, your body, and your senses with nature, with heritage, with others. Elevate your thinking, your spirits, and your being." I took this description from a Chautauqua website but thought it explained it perfectly. September 24th is of course the premier September Event, Wurstfest!!!! We still have time so keep those donations coming and until next week, GGG!!!!

Does what happens in Vegas really stay in Vegas?

Only Paul knows for sure!
