The Polio Challenge

President Paul Krumm showcased the new Polio Pigs last week. He challenged Vicki (do these jeans make my butt look big?) Mayes and Rich (this is the kind of gal I used to run around with!) Baughman to dress this years polio pigs and to begin collecting funds for this years Polio challenge. Vicki brought in a check for $100 and Rich gave an excuse as to why he had no money. I am sure he will come up with something by the looks of this "pig of the night". Wonder who they are supposed to look like? I think they both look like the gal in the middle ~ one trashy Vegas chick and the other in her blue jeans, Sunrise Rotary shirt and her hair spiked! The banks were passed on to another unsuspecting Sunrise Rotarian.

A Rotarian from another club called last week to see if she could buy our smaller pigs for her club this year. I was happy to tell her they had been placed at local merchants in our community again this year. I told her she could find them at Michael's. And Target has some with polka dots and other designs on them.

The Big 10 Diet

Have you ever seen people have more fun than Sunrise Rotarians? They are always up to something. When nothing is happening they get together and make something happen. Usually it is at someone else's expense. Take this years Polio Pig for example. But I already covered that! Some of the guys decided that others should loose some weight so they made a challenge. Doug Schepmann challenged Kevin Gillespie, Jim Amstutz, Bert Hanson, DB Merrell, Roger Hall, Dave Olsen and maybe others to a Big 10 Diet. The first day they ate 10 bananas, second day 10 eggs, third day 10 hot dogs with water, coffee or tea. Then repeat the diet until the next meeting.

There was so much BS (bean soup) flying that we don't know if anyone really lost on the diet. Just by observation, Kevin Gillespie and Doug Schepmann look pretty lean in this picture!!

Relay for Life Boulder City

Celebrate - The Survivors Lap

Relay starts with a Survivors Lap an inspirational time when survivors are invited to circle the track together and help everyone celebrate the victories we've achieved over cancer. The Survivors Lap is an emotional example of how Relay participants are creating a world with more birthdays like those of each

Remember - The Luminaria Ceremony

After dark, we honor people who have been touched by cancer and remember loved ones lost to the disease during the Luminaria Ceremony. Candles are lit inside bags filled with sand, each one bearing the name of a person touched by cancer, and participants often walk a lap in silence. And the word HOPE is spelled out in luminaries on the bleachers.

Cancer never sleeps!

Relay for Life teams collect pledges for their time and walk the track throughout the night raising money for cancer research

Fight Back - The Fight Back Ceremony

At the Fight Back Ceremony, you will make a personal commitment to save lives by taking up the fight against cancer.

No matter where you are, there's a place for you at Relay and you can make a difference today by signing up online to start your own team or by simply making a donation.

Thanks to Relay participants, we are creating a world with more birthdays - a world where cancer can't claim another year of anyone's life.

Las year Dean Molburg was the Sunrise Rotary team captain. Dean set up the tent, and stayed until midnight to take it down. Rotary donated money and Dean and crew handed out pizza for extra donations. Crew members were, Goldie Begley, Beth Molburg, Diane Brumberg, Andrea Anderson and Harold Begley. That's not the real Elvis ~ Elvis is dead!
