Congratulations Tony!

Doug Scheppmann honored son Tony with a Paul Harris Fellowship. "Tony has made a commitment and exemplifies what Rotary is all about. It is truly my privilege to make Tony our next Paul Harris Fellow. This pen signifies that you have a Rotary Spirit." said his father.

The father and son corporate team of Doug and Tony Scheppmann individually and collectively represent the ideals of Rotary on a daily basis in our community. Doug's presentation of the Paul Harris Fellowship to Tony further exemplifies their commitment to Rotary, to the community and, most of all, to one-another.

The 'corporate' membership designation provides a family member and business partner of a Sunrise Rotarian the opportunity to participate with the club member and as a representative of the club in activities for a 2 year period. During that time the corporate member and the active member are considered as one membership for RI records and as long as one of the two is present at meetings the Sunrise Rotarian is credited with being present. At the end of the 2 year period the 'corporate' member is then asked to become an active member, assuming the responsibilities of regular individual membership.

Other corporate members have been Chad Blair, son of Rotarian Bob, Vickie Brown daughter of past Rotarian Diane Brumberg and Geoff Baughman son of Rotarian Rich. After his 2 years as a corporate member Geoff officially joined our club and has been a very active and vital member of Sunrise Rotary.

Congratulations Tony!

Prez Paul's Goal

Prez Paul pulled names from Foundation Chair DB Merrell's pretty red silk bag to receive a $100 donation to their Paul Harris fellowship.

The lucky winners were:

Doug Scheppmann, Rich Baughman, John Milburn, Bob Blair, Lee Hagen, Goldie Begley, and Geoff Baughman. Prez Paul's goal is to have a 100% Paul Harris Club when he leaves office July 1.

Hello Sunrise Rotary Members

I'm still working at spending your money for immediate needs. This young man is almost 16 and wants to start working. Dad is a security guard and mom does housekeeping. They live locally in an apartment in Boulder City. He needed a $50 health card. He was so appreciative and polite. All this makes my heart glad...your heart should be glad too. Thanks for everything.

Note ~ This project was ok'd by last years board. We have ask Toni to watch for students who needed help in a big way for them but in a small way for us. Since the project began we have only spent $255.00 but we have helped several students mostly getting work cards and some small graduation needs last year.

Dear Rotary Members:

Thank you so much for your donation of $500. It will be used to help with the costs of installing 14 new statues on May 28. We would like to extend an invitation to all Rotary members to join us for the walk-about of new statues that evening at approximately 6:30 pm.

Your support is greatly appreciated.

Sincerely

Mariola O'Brien~Secretary

Tuff Year for the Polio Pigs

The strong willed Polio Pigs have been misplaced several times this year but continue to collect money. Recently one was held captive by a local doctor and last week Rotarian Doug Scheppmann tried to drown one in one of the lakes at Boulder Creek. We are not sure how the original joke began, but Doug says during the trial, the pig floated in the bathtub for 2 hours at home and did not sink.

After several cups of coffee(?) Doug placed the pig in the lake Thursday morning and it immediately sank. He made a big deal at the meeting out of the supposed

"pigicide" and ask me (Goldie) to help get the pig of the lake. I seriously thought it was a joke! Who would be dumm enuff to put a piggy bank filled with small change and an open slot for the change into the lake?

We know who!

After last weeks meeting, I was lured to the lake for the BIG POLIO PIG RESCUE! Doug used his fishing line to rescue the bank, while John Milburn pulled it out of the water and handed it to me. While I was extracting the water and making a plan, I looked up and everyone was headed to the club house. I shouted, "WHAT?" The answer came back, "Its all yours, take care of it and deposit the money!"

Later Scheppmann handed me a $100 check from his business for the polio fund. Guess it was worth it. The pig had a face lift on Friday just in time to make an appearance at Spring Jam.

KenDucky Derby Queens

Rotarians Alan Bowman, Toni Mattei, Lee and Paul Hagen, Pres Paul, Rich Baughman, Doug Scheppman, Kevin Nicholson, Mark McGinty, and Tony Scheppman, had a great deal of fun passing out brochures, and talking about Sunrise Rotary's KenDucky Derby, WurstFest and other projects. They netted $1,046 in KenDucky Derby sales. Rumor is, Rich Baughman did not pick up any chicks but did pick up some small ducks!
