October Events in Boulder City

There are times when big Events are over like Wurstfest, Art in the Park and my Step-Daughter's Wedding that we may feel a little bored or let down. In our great little town there is no reason for that and I will tell you why.

The Pumpkin-Man Triathlon comes to town on October 13th, 14th and 15th.

The Zombie Squad's Las Vegas Chapter will have a Zombie Walk on October 15th from 6:30 to 11:30 p.m.

Zombie's will invade Wilbur Square and meet at the big turbine in Bicentennial Park. They will creep their way through the main strip of the City. The walk of the zombie's will end at the Boulder Dam Brewing Company. The evening entertainment, besides the zombies, will be bands and a huge raffle with great prizes. Make sure and bring some extra money to buy raffle tickets. This Event is open to all ages. Please see the head zombie, Todd Cooke, for more details. The proceeds for this Event benefit St. Jude's Ranch for Children.

On October 16th there will be a "Healing Alex Goya Walk-A-Thon in Bicentennial Park from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m.

The 4th Annual "Boulder City Goes Passionately Pink for the Cure" will be held on October 21, 2011. The program and pictures will be on the City Hall steps at 12:00 noon. Please see Jill Lagan or the Boulder City Chamber of Commerce website for more information on these Events.

On October 21st and 22nd, Grace Community Church will hold its annual Country Store which is a huge garage sale.

The "Double Eagle Scramble Fore Kids" will be October 29th at Boulder City Municipal Golf Course. Please see Marcie Gibson for more information on this Event. This is a fundraiser for The Boys and Girls Club of Boulder City.

What would Halloween be without the Chamber's "Halloween Family Fun Night?" This Event is held at Vet's Memorial Park and begins at 5:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. with trunk-or-treat and at 7:00 p.m. the movie "Haunted Mansion" will be shown."

Until next week, GGG!!!!

Lee did a great job filling in for our President. She did not turn too red.

Jeff Breeden gave a brief report on the financial outlook for the Wurstfest

Doug Scheppmann thanking everyone for their hard work!
