Our Time to Shine

The week of Wurstfest is upon us. Please grab your family, friends, neighbors and even people off the street and invite them to our event. Our fabulous marketing team has spread the word to the Henderson and Las Vegas areas. It is time to get this party started. Many months of planning, preparation, auction items, scheduling, ordering, and marketing are completed. Many more tasks before and including the day of Wurstfest are now in progress. Please review if needed the times and jobs that you have signed up for and make sure you are on time. Once again, many hands make light work.

President John says, "JOB WELL DONE!!!!!! We have 213 silent auction items and 65 live auction items. We should all be proud of this and one more time let's list all the teams and their accomplishments.

In first place is Donna Draney's team with 60 items.

The second place team is Doug Scheppmann with 57 items. Coming in a close third is Rich Baughman with 53.

Roger Hall is fourth with 47 items.

We have a tie for fifth place between the Kendra Wright and Bert Hansen teams. They each had a total of 38 items.

Our 6th place went to the team of Judy Bible but even though that ranked last there was still an impressive 34 items.

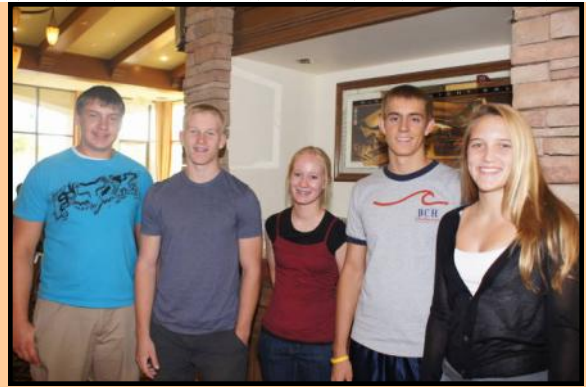

In reading the list of auction items it is easy to see there is something for everyone in variety and price range. We have $59,910.00 in value of live auction items and $1055.00 in basket live items. The silent auction is going to be fantastic this year as well.

We have great entertainment this year with a variety of bands. We have activities for kids and a car show. We will and have always had great food and beverage. Let's all have a great day and lots of fun!!!!!! See you there.

We have all been praying for Goldie, Harold and family. This week they have had some new challenges but that has never been something Goldie wouldn't overcome. Please keep the prayers coming. Goldie may not physically be at Wurstfest this year but will be in her mind and heart. She will find out if we mess anything up so let's all make her proud. Until next week, GGG!!!!!!
